

ANZSOC Local Event Support Scheme

ANZSOC is pleased to provide funding up to $1000 for individual activities that support and promote criminology in Australia and New Zealand.

The money could be used to fund costs such as:

- Speaker travel and accommodation
- Fees for venue hire
- Costs for digital activities (such as recording of audio and video files for ANZSOC website and YouTube).
- Costs associated with remote access such as webinars for online conference specifically for online students
- Advertising
- Catering

Proposals may only be submitted by ANZSOC members and they will be viewed favourably if they:

- provide added benefit for existing ANZSOC members
- result in digital content that can be shared with ANZSOC members
- encourage new members to join
- support undergraduate and/or postgraduate students' participation

The event should be promoted to all members via ANZSOC social media. The event organisers must advise the ANZSOC Secretary as soon as possible (and send through copies of any marketing material) to enable the event can be publicised through Facebook, the website, member mailing lists and Twitter. On the day, '@ANZSOC' Twitter handle should be used in the event's Tweets.

The ANZSOC Secretary will provide templates for flyers and marketing material, to promote consistency.

It is expected that a short report (including pictures) be provided after the event in the form of a newsletter article for PacifiCrim. This may also be cross-posted in other outlets, such as the ANZSOC website.

Any audio or audio visual content must also be provided to the ANZSOC Secretary. This may then be shared on social media, ANZSOC's website and/or YouTube channel.

Funding approval is dependent upon the merit of the application and ANZSOC's financial position at the time of the application. All applications require approval of the Committee of Management. Applications will be considered at the Committee meeting following submission of the proposal (the Committee meets monthly).

Application form must be completed and submitted to the Secretary at secretary@anzsoc.org by or before the first Thursday of each month.
