

University of Oxford

Come and study for an...

MSc in Criminology and Criminal Justice

...in Europe's most beautiful and prestigious University City

This is a one-year full-time post-graduate course providing students with the opportunity to study cutting edge Criminology alongside pre-eminent academics and practitioners at the Oxford University Centre for Criminology.

MSc Teaching staff :

Dr Zainab Al-Attar	Psychology and Psychiatry in Criminal Justice
Prof Andrew Ashworth	Sentencing
Dr Ros Burnett	Desistance from Crime
Dr Benjamin Goold	Public and Private Policing & Human Rights
Prof Keith Hawkins	Discretion—Prosecuting Workplace Illegalities
Dr Carolyn Hoyle	Victims & The Death Penalty
Dr Liora Lazarus	Human Rights
Colin Roberts	Punishment in the Community and the Prison
Dr Julian Roberts	Gender, Race, Crime and Criminal Justice
Dr Federico Varese	Mafias & Research Methods
Dr Richard Young	Restorative Justice
Dr Lucia Zedner	Risk and Criminal Justice

For further information visit the Centre's website:

www.crim.ox.ac.uk

Application forms and Graduate Prospectus are available from:

Graduate Admissions Office,

<http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/gsp/apply/>

Tel: +44 (0)1865 (2)70059/60/80