NOTES:

1. A Candidate may only be nominated for one office, an ordinary member of the committee, the editor of the Australian & New Zealand Journal of Criminology or as Convenor of the Annual Conference of the Association prior to the Annual General Meeting.
2. This nomination form, once completed, must be delivered to the Secretary of the Association not less than seven days before the date fixed for the holding of the Annual General Meeting.
3. If insufficient nominations are received to fill vacancies on the committee, the candidates nominated shall be deemed to be elected and further nominations may be received at the Annual General Meeting.
4. If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies, the persons nominated shall be deemed to be elected.
5. If the number of nominations exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled a ballot must be held. The ballot for the election of officers and ordinary members of the committee must be conducted at the Annual General Meeting in such manner as the committee may direct.
6. Once elected to the position, each officer shall hold office until the second annual general meeting after the date of his or her election but is eligible for re-election (save for the Editor and Convenor of the Annual Conference).
